NEW ORLEANS OPENING DAY

Winter Racing Season Will be Inaugurated at Jefferson Park.

Well Filled Card for Initial Day's Sport Despite Unpropitious Weather Conditions.

New Orleans, La., November 22.—Cold weather, accompanied by a hard rain, which threatens to continue for some time, altered conditions here and will probably detract from tomorrow's opening at Jefferson Park, where the New Orleans racing season will be ushered in. Considering that the course will be muddy and arrivals of horsemen with their racers has been somewhat tardy, a surprisingly good card is offered racing patrons for the inaugural day, and it promises to bring to the course the full quota of racing devotees in these parts.

The program of six races originally carded filled in fairly good style with the exception of the third race, and the lack of entries to it was responsible for it being declared off. To complete the card of six races the fifth race, in which thirty-one entered, was split, and one section will be run off as the third race.

Newcomers were plentiful during the day, the eastern contingent especially being large. Most of them expressed surprise that the opening tomorrow embraces the regular meeting, as they were under the belief that the period of racing until Thanksgiving Day would be in connection with the fair.

Joseph A. Murphy, who will be the presiding steward at Jefferson Park, was an arrival this morning and at once took up his duties and passed on applications for licenses by trainers and jockeys.

Starter George Miller, who will preside at the barrier pending the arrival of Edward Tribe, who is doing the starting at Bowie, got in this morning and began installing his starting gate at the various positions. Both Miller and Tribe are newcomers in these parts. A. B. Dade, who will start at the Fair Grounds, having occupied a similar position last year at Jefferson Park.

Jockey Frank Robinson, who is under contract to Harry Payne Whitney, was among the arrivals today. He will ride here for S. A. Clopton, who is training a division of the Whitney horses and those of J. O. Talbott.

Edward Haynes was also an arrival this morning and will accept mounts beginning tomorrow. Other good riders due tomorrow from the east include Ensor and Walls. The latter is said to be showing all his old-time skill and has fully recovered from the injury he sustained here last year.

Three cars of horses came from Latonia this morning and included the horses that will be raced here by Pat Dunne.

Sam Doggett, brother of the late "Cad" Doggett, came this morning. He reports that most of the big eastern operators will make their departure from Broadway in a few days and that they will be in the Crescent City in about a week.

Satisfactory transportation arrangements for reaching the track was concluded this afternoon. The Illinois Central will run three special trains daily direct to the track, while the surface line that operates to the grandstand has put into effect a ten-minute schedule between 12:30 and 2:00 p. m. There will also be good facilities for leaving the track after the last race.

LATONIA CUP TO BE DECIDED TODAY

Good Field Scheduled to Contest Valuable Long Distance Event of Fall Season.

Cincinnati, O., November 22.—It is now a certainty that the running of the Latonia Cup, two and one-quarter miles, the most important event of the whole Latonia meeting, which is scheduled for Saturday, will take place over a heavy track. Fortunately for the prestige of this great contest for stayers the prospective contestants for the rich prize and the beautiful solid silver trophy include so many tried and true mud runners that a splendid field is assured in spite of the adverse track conditions. In fact it seems likely that the heavy going in which the race will be decided may add to the attractiveness of the contest. Willis Sharpe Kilmer's Exterminator, the Waldeck Stable's Moscowa and Lester & Henderson's Beaverkill, three of the foremost candidates for the race, are such superlative mud larks that all three will be especially well served by the heavy going that is sure to prevail. The field for the race will be made up of the following:

Horse.	Owner.	Wt.
Exterminator	W. S. Kilmer	121
Moscowa	Waldeck Stable	115
Beaverkill	Lester & Henderson	110
El Rey	Williams Bros.	102
Herald	H. H. Hewitt	100
Golding	A. B. Hancock	96
Shadow Lawn	J. H. Woodford	97

With his usual originality in providing suitable trophies for the important races that are on the schedule of Latonia stake fixtures of the first importance, General Manager Hachmeister has provided an exceptionally fine trophy to commemorate the winning of this important race this year. The trophy consists of a set of ten pieces of solid silver, including a handsome punch bowl embellished with the figure of a racing thoroughbred in bas relief, half a dozen mint julep cups of ornate design decorated with the seal of the Latonia Jockey Club, and ice spoons to match. The trophy is attracting much attention in the window of a local retail store, where it has been placed on exhibition.

There being no deadwood in the prospective field, it is likely to be a lively betting race. Exterminator, on the strength of his well-demonstrated liking for the heavy going that will prevail and his splendid record of winning performances in Maryland just prior to his shipment here for the express purpose of engaging in this race, probably will rule favorite in spite of the tremendous concessions of weight asked of him. His impost was fairly earned, however, for he triumphed over some of the best horses in training in America in his recent successful campaign in the east. His owner, Willis Sharpe Kilmer, is expected here from his home at Binghamton with a party of friends to see the running of the race. Trainer Henry McDaniel is quite confident that his charge will give a good account of himself and is eminently satisfied with his condition. Exterminator's latest work for the race was a mile and three-quarters in 3:09, accomplished on the same day that Moscowa worked two miles for the race in 3:43 in muddy going. Jockey Loftus, admittedly one of the best riders in America, will pilot the Kilmer star.

BOWIE RACING PROVIDES SURPRISES

Jockey Kelsay's Riding of Kashmir Causes Comment—Babette Scores Third Straight Win.

Bowie, Md., November 22.—A dry track and cold weather evidently affected the racing, for the day's program produced several surprises, the most pronounced and deplorable of which was Jockey Kelsay's riding of Kashmir in the Midway Purse, the day's nominal feature. It was won by Quietude, which was permitted to set a slow pace through the early running, followed by the plater Sunnyland. Kelsay, on Kashmir, was forced to exert his full strength to place the colt during the backstretch running and finally, when the leaders swung wide into the stretch, Kelsay made a close turn, then permitted his mount to finish on his own courage. Kelsay's effort was one of the poorest that has been witnessed during the meeting. It brought about an immediate investigation by the stewards. Game Cock, another favored in the speculation, raced far below his recent form.

Sibola captured the first race, in which a big band of maidens was engaged. She caught Caddie in the last eighth after the latter had led by a wide gap from the start.

Frederick the Great beat Pepper in a sensational finish in the third race, the result of which was in doubt until official placing was announced.

The fifth race was well contested, Poor Butterfly and Indian Chant fighting it out throughout the mile and a sixteenth, the former getting the verdict by a small margin.

John E. Madden's Irene was considered best in the sixth race, but after leading by what appeared a safe margin to the final eighth, was overtaken and passed by Broom Peddler in the final strides.

Babette won her third straight victory of the meeting when she cantered home three lengths in advance of Grey Eagle in the concluding race of the day.

George Odom today denied all knowledge of any contract to train for John Sanford. He said that he has determined to sell all the Brookdale Stable horses in his care with the exception of King Plaudit, which he will return to New York at the end of the current meeting.

The program book for the final six days of the Bowie meeting distributed today, evoked the horsemens' praise.

G. W. Forman claimed Lillian Shaw after her defeat in the second race.

John Farrell, Jr., purchased the Oneck Stable's Wisest Fool at private sale.

BIG PRICES FOR HORSES NEXT YEAR

More Racing Opportunities Will Serve to Increase Value of the Thoroughbred.

New York, November 22.—Talk about the high price of food and commodities, that is nothing compared with the prices that will be asked for horses next year. This is the expressed opinion of those in a position to know. They base their judgment on the fact there will be considerably more racing in 1919 than this year, consequently a greater demand for thoroughbreds.

In the first place, it is reasonably sure there will be racing in Canada, which will pull at least from 700 to 1,000 horses from the general collection, especially if the half-mile tracks operate. Coupled with this the prospects are there will be considerably more racing in the west than there was this year. Then there is the posibility of a longer season in New York State, it having been intimated the sport will begin earlier and end later than it did this year. The conflict of dates with Maryland this year has shown that there was sufficient material for both circuits.

What will increase the value of the horse, however, more than shortage is the goodly purses that will be offered and the rich stakes in prospect. Kentucky bristles with rich events and New York and Maryland are both displaying decided liberality in added money. Add to this the rich Canadian purses in the event that racing is resumed in the Dominion, the prospects for earning capacity of horses is almost beyond conception.

Even now it is next to impossible to buy a horse that can win races unless a fabulous sum is offered. An idea of this is gathered from the price Commander J. K. L. Ross paid for War Pennant, Motor Cop and War Marvel, the sum being $75,000 for the three. One can therefor imagine what a race horse is worth if its earning possibilities are almost doubled to what they were this year and the prospects of expenses being less, now the war is over.

Ready-made horses will be in great demand unless all signs fail, which are not likely. Today it is almost impossible to buy a horse equal to winning a cheap selling race for less than $1,500 or $2,000. This has been proved time and time again in selling and claiming races. With Canada resuming racing, it means that at least 25 per cent more money will be added to the annual distribution this year. Breeding and buying horses appears to be a rather alluring industry these days, as prosperity is lurking everywhere and looks as if it will continue to "lurk" for many years to come in this country.

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF

Hartford Insurance—John A. Payne, General Agent, Cincinnati, O.—[Advt.

Jockey L. Lyke will not go to New Orleans until after the holidays, intending to take a well-earned rest next month.

Monday, November 25, has been set apart as Red Cross day at Bowie. The free list will be entirely suspended and the gross receipts given to the great charity.

Jockey Frank Robinson will ride at New Orleans. Upon his arrival for the Jefferson Park opening he will report to S. A. Clopton, who holds first call upon his services for the winter season.

W. J. Griffin, the English ex-jockey, died in action in France. He had previously served in Italy for twelve months, but was transferred to France, and had only been there a fortnight when he met his death.

At the annual Sandhill races held in conjunction with the Sandhill Fair at Pinehurst, N. C., last Wednesday, J. E. Farnsworth's Front Royal carried off the chief event of the program. J. C. Thomas' Disturber was second by a head and Nat Hurd's McAdams a good third.

Thomas A. Combs of Lexington, one of the newly appointed members of the Kentucky State Racing Commission, is a director of the Federal Reserve Bank in the Cleveland district, while W. J. Abrams of Louisville, another of the new commissioners, is a banker and hat manufacturer.

The following deaths of horses, all yearlings, have been reported to the Jockey Club. Royardo, b. c. 1917, by Bayardo—Romagne; chestnut filly, 1917, by Superman—Bohemia; chestnut filly, 1917, by Superman—Carpathia II.; bay colt, 1917, by Sain—Everdene; bay filly, by Strephon—Grace Cameron; bay colt, 1917, by Ormondale—Hot Water; chestnut colt, 1917, by Uncle—Nigella; bay filly, 1917, by King James—Princess Ormonde.

GAINSBOROUGH FAR IN ADVANCE

Lady James Douglas, His Owner, Leads English Winning Owners of the Year.

The winning list of owners, horses and jockeys for the present English racing season, which opened April 1, to October 20, are given herewith. Lady James Douglas, through Gainsborough, is first among the owners. Gainsborough himself, of course, is the leading equine winner, and Donoghue is well in advance among the riders.

The owners winning $5,000 and over are as follows:

ONTARIO IS FACING A HORSE FAMINE

Nearly Every County in Province Shows Alarming Reduction in Service Stallions.

Toronto, Ont., November 22.—The province of Ontario is facing a horse famine.

The number of stallions enrolled for service in Ontario in 1913 was 2,760. This year the number similarly enrolled is only 1,993. The number enrolled in 1914 was greater than for the previous year, but every year since 1914 has shown a decrease.

Most of the reduction is due to the gradual elimination of grade stallions. These have fallen from 933 in 1913 to 458 this year, a reduction of 535. But there has been a reduction in pure-breds as well from 1,767 to 1,535, a drop of 232.

Every county in Ontario, with one exception, shows a reduction in the total number of stallions for service. In Middlesex, a noted horse center, there has been a drop from 128 to 73, while the county has gone down from 119 to 101.

It is probable that a good deal of the total reduction noted is due to continued selling to the west, coupled with curtailment in importations from the United Kingdom as a result of the war. Only 66 stallions of all breeds were imported from England last year by Canadian breeders. But whatever the cause, it is plainly evident that this province is face to face with a serious shortage of horses for breeding purposes.

LATONIA'S OFF-DAY RACING

No Outstanding Feature, but Four Favorites Win.

Gipsy Queen Takes the Main Race —Riders Who Will Guide Latonia Cup Horses.

Latonia, Ky., November 22.—Although the card at Latonia this afternoon was devoted to the cheaper grade of horses, the racing proved highly interesting to the large crowd that turned out. An allowance race at three-quarters with a purse value of $1,000 provided the main attraction and resulted in a victory for Gipsy Queen, which, under Lunsford's capable riding, outstayed her opponents in the final drive and won by a length. Sands of Pleasure, after making the running for the greater part of the way, tired in the stretch drive, but easily outstayed Opportunity for second place. Opportunity, which was installed as favorite, ran a consistent race. Today's card marks his third start in four days, he having finished in the money in each one.

The Latonia track was still heavy today, while the weather remained threatening. The stable of Gallaher Bros. supplied two of the winners, these being Discussion in the opening race and Bourbon Lad in the closing contest. The first named was a strong favorite, while Bourbon Lad paid his backers seven to one. Both horses accounted for their respective races in easy style.

Favorites fared somewhat better than on previous days, the first choices to score being Discussion, Harry Breivogel, Ambassador III. and Dr. Tuck. The only real surprise was supplied by Jane Pennybaker, which easily won the second race and paid her backers $30.10 for each two dollars invested. Harry Lunsford again distinguished himself by his skillful saddle work. He won with Ambassador III. and Gipsy Queen, finished second on First Star and third on Capt. Hodge.

Jockey C. Brown incurred the displeasure of Starter Dade in the sixth race and was suspended for three days.

The fractious Starry Banner delayed the start in the seventh race and was ordered on the schooling list. Brownie McDawell, favorite in this race, was as good as left.

The seven that have been named to contest for Latonia Cup honors tomorrow, with the jockeys engaged for them and their weights, include the following: Exterminator, J. Loftus, 121; Moscowa, O. Willis, 115; Beaverkill, H. Lunsford, 110; El Rey, M Garner, 102; Herald, H. J. Burke, 100; Shadow Lawn, C. Van Dusen, 97, and Golding, J. Mooney, 96.

It had confidently been expected that O. A. Bianchi's good three-year-old Lucky B. would be a contender in the race, but his sale to Milo Shields Friday morning led to his elimination from the contest. His new owner has decided to reserve him for a winter campaign at New Orleans.

PASSPORTS FOR HORSEMEN TO CUBA.

Charles H. Lansdale, who is representing the interests of the Cuba-American Jockey Club at Latonia, reports having applied for passports for more than one hundred turfmen gathered here who are planning to make the trip to Cuba at the close of the Latonia meeting to engage in the winter racing at Oriental Park. He was notified yesterday that the United States Railroad administration had granted a round trip rate of $109 from Cincinnati to Havana, including war tax, for day coach service and that the round trip rate for Pullman, exclusive of berth charges, but including war tax, would be $116.

Racing Secretary Campbell has issued to the horsemen the program book for the final four days of the meeting next week. It provides feature races of the overnight type for valuable purses each day, with the Thanksgiving Handicap of $2,000 added, for all ages at one mile and one-sixteenth, as the particular feature of the closing day's program.

Roddy Patterson, trainer for Major Robert L. Gerry of New York, was an arrival in quest of a few young horses of merit to add to the seventeen that Major Gerry already has in winter quarters at Belmont Park. He announced the purchase from R. H. Anderson of the yearling sister to Liberty Loan, a filly by Dick Finnell—Clara Palmer.

George Terry, formerly assistant to ex-starter Harry Morrissey, now stationed at Camp Taylor, Louisville, was a visitor.

Barney Schreiber was an arrival from his former home in St. Louis, where he successfully resisted an attack of influenza. He will go to New Orleans for the winter.

William Newman has purchased Mary Fuller from J. W. Fuller and will race her at New Orleans.

Dave Leary departed for Belmont Park with Cirrus and Arrah Go On. It is probable, he said, that Cirrus will be nominated for the Latonia Derby next spring. He has an idea that the colt is not particularly at home in muddy going and that he would have won the Queen City Handicap, for which he was brought west, had the track been fast.

Tim Murphy was an arrival from the east.

Jockey M. Garner was suspended for the remainder of the meeting by the stewards for striking Jockey Murphy with his whip after the finish of the first race.

WIN RICH AUSTRALASIAN RACES

The race for the valuable New Zealand Cup at Canterbury, New Zealand, was run November 4 and won by H. G. Stead's five-year-old gelding Sasanoff, which was followed home by Rosepink and Menelaus. Sasanoff in November, 1916, as a three-year-old, carried off the highest honors "down under," as he won the Melbourne Cup (worth $34,775 and a gold cup valued at $750) from Shepherd King, St. Spasa and a big field. Last year he won two other good races. He is by Martian tan imported horse, by Martagon—Otterden), by Martian, while Rosepink, which divided the pair, is by Kilbroney. Menelaus won the Cup a year ago, and another of Martian's get in Ardenvohr secured the spoil in 1916. For three years running, therefore, has Martian sired the winner. He was also the sire of Warstep, which deadheated with Indigo in 1914. The distance of the Cup is two miles.

The Victoria Racing Club Derby was run for November 2 and won by Eusebius, with Outlook second and Funmark third.

The English colt Magpie won the Melbourne Stakes November 2, a weight-for-age race, with $5,000 added (one and one-half miles), with Desert Gold second and Wolaroi third.

ALABAMA FISH AND GAME LAWS

Montgomery, Ala., November 22.—In a report submitted to Governor Charles Henderson, John H. Wallace, Jr., state game and fish commissioner, makes recommendations to the next legislature that all state lands, whether held in fee or in trust, be declared state game refuges and forest preserves.

"Providing that hunters' license year shall expire June 1.

"Providing for the appointment of deputy game and fish wardens by the game and fish commissioner, by and with the consent and approval of the governor.

"Providing for the changing of the open season on squirrels shall begin on October 1 instead of August 1.

"Providing a comprehensive system for the protection of the forests, making it unlawful to pollute streams by placing or throwing sawdust or other deleterious substances therein.

"Prescribing the size of mesh of all nets legally operated in the fresh waters of the state; imposing a license tax on all nets and fish traps operated in the fresh waters, for the purpose of regulating the same; providing that fish can only be taken in fresh water emptying into salt water, the same as now prescribed for taking fish in fresh water; providing for a closed season on fur-bearing animals and the licensing of trappers."

Mr. Wallace shows it "is safe to approximate the value of birds, wild quadrupeds and fish yearly in Alabama as follows: Quail, dove, duck, geese, snipe, squirrel, etc., $3,200,000; furs, skins and pelts, $30,000; commerce depending upon fish, $500,000; value of birds to agriculture, horticulture and forestry, $3,000,000; total of $6,730,000.
